GREENVILLE

Mrs. Henry Cole and Robert of Prospect street, went Thursday to Hartford to spend the holidays. Mr. Cole joined them on Saturday.

S. Potter Gorton of Eleventh street, is home from Bates college for the holiday.

Mrs. Charles Zarnowski and daughter Phyllis and Mrs. John Broadwood of New Jersey are visiting their parents Mr. and Mrs. Rosycki on Prospect street.

The A. O. H. division No. 18, held its weekly meet at the home of Mrs. James W. on Thursday evening. "When we were kids" was given by Mrs. C. J. Ryan.

Charles Gable who was operated on at St. Luke's hospital has returned to his home on Central avenue.

Friday morning the kindergarten pupils gave vent to the holiday spirit in their class room, which was appropriately decorated with the Christmas tree and youngsters. A well filled Christmas tree occupied one corner of the room, its branches laden with calendars, blotters, decorated candy bags (filled with real sweets), all the children children then sang and intended for distribution to parents and friends.

Programme—Prayer, Good Morning (song); Jack Frost (song); Richard Bolt, recitation; Humpty Dumpty (song); Egan Forridge Hot (song); Barbara Donahue (recitation); song, Carol Pearson, Shirley Prentice, Ruth Carpenter, Helen Brown; recitation, Haydon (recitation); Shine Out Oh Blessed Star (song); Bye-Loe (song); Hickory, Dickory, Dock (song); Marjorie Flynn, recitation; Here Comes Jolly Santa Claus (song); Alice Brown (recitation); Here Mary (song); Play (Three Little Kittens).

With gaily decorated Christmas tree occupying the center of the stage in the assembly hall of the Greenville school Friday afternoon, the various classes gathered for the usual holiday exercises. The various numbers on the program were creditably rendered, the group recitation "Christmas in Many Lands" by ten pupils of the eighth grade, being both interesting and instructive.

A new phonograph, purchased through the efforts of the pupils, rendered appropriate Christmas selections. This machine will be used in conjunction with the regular music curriculum in the school, bringing to the classrooms the world's best music as expressed vocally and instrumentally by well known artists and musical organizations, as well as in teaching folk songs and dancing in some of the grades.

The Greenville school orchestra furnished music for school singing. This organization composed of pupils from classes 1923 and 1922 has, through weekly practice, placed itself in line to be counted as one of the best of its kind in this vicinity.

Selections, school orchestra; song, Hark the Herald Angels Sing, school; recitation, The Children's Gift, Elinor Howard; recitation, A Dialogue, Mary Adams; Mary Stenwick; recitation, A Christmas Wish, Ruth Anderson; music, Christmas selections on phonograph; recitation, The Christmas Tree, Doris Lund; recitation, Willa Brown Letter, Earl Christianson; recitation, Learning to Spell, Dorothy Winterbottom; recitation, Why? James McHugh; recitation, Santa Claus, Margaret Bassett; group recitation, Christmas in Many Lands, Minnie Quinley, Mary Stearns, Jennie Kluwakowski, Frieda Dempski, Stasia Labenski, Raymond DeWolf, Peter Tackel, Kenneth McNeil, Stanley Scriver, Edward Gromko; song, America, school; selections by orchestra.

TAFTVILLE

Robert Brooks, William Brooks, Miss Elizabeth Brooks and Eric Pickering of Terrace avenue are in Pawtucket, R. I., where they are spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. John Williams. Mrs. Brooks left Friday for Pawtucket.

Joseph Pagin and Miss Mary Bergeron of North B street left Saturday for Bristol, Conn., where they will join Mrs. Pagin and Master Edmund Pagin, who are spending the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Pagin's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bergeron and family.

While trying to cut a Christmas tree, Francis Donovan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Donovan of North A street, cut his foot with an axe.

Another child's accident was reported when Frank Ryburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ryburn of the Canterbury turnpike

MAN FOUND DEAD IN THE ROAD NEAR VOLUNTOWN SCHOOL HOUSE

(Special to The Bulletin)

Jewett City, Dec. 24.—Thomas McGuire, 45, was found dead at 1.30 o'clock this morning near the Voluntown school house. Moses Tetrault was returning from a dance in Rockville, R. I., and found the man lying in a pool of blood in middle of the road. There was a cut over the right eye and his neck was broken. Although every effort was made Sunday to find the cause of the accident, no clue was available.

A theory was advanced that the man was struck by an automobile, being left to die, but it is not proved. He has been employed by the Briggs Mfg. Co. mills as a weaver, having been there for three weeks. He has also been in Occum and Voluntown as a weaver before this time. His home was in Fall River where he leaves his wife and three children. He boarded at the home of John Buggy in Voluntown. Medical Examiner Dr. J. H. Hoover gave permission for the removal of the body and it was brought to Hourigan Bros. undertaking rooms in Jewett City.

BANQUET SPEAKERS WILL DISCUSS HISTORICAL SUBJECTS

Bishop Murray with a large committee from cities and towns of Connecticut are assisting in the completion of plans for the third annual meeting of the American Catholic Historical society, which is to be held in New Haven from noon Dec. 27, until noon Dec. 30 inclusive. This meeting is being held at the same time and at the same headquarters as the American Historical association, Mississippi Valley Historical association, Agricultural History society, the American Society of Church History and several other New England Historical societies.

The headquarters of the American Catholic Historical association will be at the Hotel Taft, the secretary is the Rev. Dr. Guillard.

Rev. T. Lawton Riggs, 135 Whitney avenue, New Haven, Conn., is the head of the banquet committee, and Rev. W. J. Keefe is making the arrangements for any Norwich men who are to attend the banquet.

The five speakers at this banquet on Thursday evening will include the chairman, Right Rev. John Gregory Murray, D. D., auxiliary bishop of Hartford, who will deliver a symposium, The Value of Historical Studies. Other addresses will be The Moral Value of Historical Studies, Rt. Rev. Monsignor John B. Peterson, D. D., rector of St. John's seminary, Brighton, Mass.; The Sociological Value of Historical Studies, Dr. George Herman Perry, Dean, Union college, Schenectady, N. Y.; The Pedagogical Value of Historical Studies, Rev. Francis A. Donnelly, S. J., St. Andrew's Novitiate, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; The Cultural Value of Historical Studies, Rev. Dr. Peter Guillard, The Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C.

A smoker will be given for men by Graduates Club, 155 Elm street and a reception at the Faculty club, 149 Elm street, for all members of the association.

Clashes for Local Firemen.

The firemen at the Central fire station are smoking today (Christmas) on the American Gauge and Cotton company of 53 Otis street. The boys were remembered with a gift of cigars by the gauge and cotton company in appreciation of the department's fine work at a recent fire at the concern's plant.

crashed into a tree, fracturing his arm. Dr. Donohue was called and attended him.

Miss Clara Lepine of South A street has resigned her position with the Pomenah company.

Lewis A. Tillinghast of North Third avenue is the guest of his son in law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Taylor and family of New Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bransfield of Schenectady, N. Y., are the guests of the latter's father, John W. Savage on Hunter's avenue for the holiday.

Dan Flynn of Fancy Corner is able to be out on crutches, after being laid up with "water" on the knee.

The Quince school closed Friday for the Christmas vacation. Before closing Christmas exercises were carried out in all the grades in the school. The Lisbon school is also closed for the Christmas recess.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bogle of Providence are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Brerly of New Bedford, Mass.

Mr. Gray of Fancy Corner is the owner of a prize winning German police dog. The animal was imported by Mr. Gray recently, coming direct from kennel in Berlin. The dog was received in first class condition despite its long trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Linderson and Alfred Linderson of North Third avenue are spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Vergason of North Stonington.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bauer of North Second avenue are spending the holidays in New Bedford, Mass.

Miss Anna M. Morse of Hillside, N. J. is spending the Christmas vacation with her aunt, Miss Anna M. Beardon of Providence street.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Linderson and Alfred Linderson of North Third avenue are spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Vergason of North Stonington.

Saturday afternoon a touring car which was proceeding north on Norwich avenue crashed into the rear of a large truck which belonged to a local butcher, and which was stopped near the curb, headed north. The driver of the touring car was attempting to pass the truck when another car, a coupe, going south came into sight. The driver then turned his wheels sharply to the left to avoid hitting the coupe and the collision occurred. The touring car was slightly damaged, the two front fenders being badly dented.

One of the most popular and safest places to slide is the Providence street ball grounds. From morning until night this place is in use by the youngsters in the village. Starting on top of the cliffs, the children get a thrilling ride down a steep incline, and then sail across the ball grounds which are covered with ice. The slide does not cross road where there is traffic, and for that reason, supplies the youngsters with almost perfect safety to enjoy their sport.

The annual election of officers of the Société de Bienfaisance, Saint Jean Baptiste, was held Sunday afternoon in Parish hall. The meeting was opened with a prayer by the president, Desiré J. Dufrane, after which the ideas of the orchestra rendered a few selections. The officers for the coming year are: President, Desiré J. Dufrane; first vice president, Joseph Boucher; second vice president, Asaie Gauthier; recording secretary, Desiré Benoit; assistant recording secretary, Emile Durand; financial secretary, J. B. Bouchard; treasurer, Desiré Benoit; secretary, Desiré Benoit; and treasurer, Desiré Benoit.

The scene opened with Mary kneeling beside the Christ Child, and Joseph standing beside her. At the other end of the manger stood the three shepherds and two women of Bethlehem. Three angels appeared on a platform in back of the stage and when the shepherds grew frightened, saw the Christ Child and the angels. The angels then departed and

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Before an audience which filled the Central Baptist church to capacity the Christmas Pageant, The Birth of Christ, which was so effectively presented last year, was again presented.

The character carried their parts to perfection, and so impressive were the scenes that it seemed as though time had gone back through the years to the night of the birth of the Christ Child.

The scene opened with a pilgrimage to Bethlehem where Caesar had ordered the Hebrews to report for a census. The pilgrims were followed by the three shepherds who talked of the sadness of the Hebrew people and how it seemed that God had forsaken His people. Soon the shepherds came out to guard their flocks and as they slept, heavenly music was heard and they awoke and heard the songs of the angels telling of the birth of the King in the manger in Bethlehem. They then left their flocks to go to Bethlehem to seek the Christ and find Mary and Joseph.

Seeing the babe they realized that it is the Christ told of by the angels and immediately they sent the news to the pilgrims in Bethlehem. The people came and the three shepherds. One doubting the news criticised the shepherds for awakening the people to see a baby, and makes jest that the King of the Hebrews should be born in the manger.

Suddenly a star shone, the light resting where the Christ Child lay. Three Kings of the Orient then appeared, telling of the star and how it led them to Bethlehem where it had been prophesied that the Christ Child would be born. They offered their gifts.

Throughout the pageant songs telling of the coming of Christ were sung softly by the choir, lending to the pageant which was a beautiful picture of what happened in Bethlehem on that wonderful night.

The order of scenes and characters of the pageant were as follows:
Part I—Pilgrims on the Way to Bethlehem, The Pharisees, The Shepherds in the Fields, The Appearance of the Angels, Song of the Heavenly Host.

Part II—The Star in the East, Visit of the Wise Men, Presentation of Gifts, Hymn of Adoration.

The two principal parts, Mary and Joseph were taken respectively by Mrs. Carl W. Brown and C. F. The following appeared in the cast:
Pilgrims—Mrs. James D. Roug, Alice Peck, Gilbert Adams, George H. Gilder, Reginald Ashbey.

The Pharisees—Judge Barnes, Judge Pettit, Douglas Hunt.
Shepherds—Arthur F. Wyman, E. H. Davis, Donald Gildersleeve, Courtney Pitt, W. S. Spencer.

The Kings—Judge Allyn L. Brown, Arnold Smith Richard Arnold.
Angels—Frederic Noyes, Amy Marsh, Viola Hill, Dorothy Gildersleeve, Marion Blaisdell.

Other taking part were Mrs. Arthur F. Wyman, Earl Swan, Guido Ottaviano, Janet Romano, Sydney Pitt, Mabel Hagberg, Elizabeth Williams, Carl Brend, Louis Covey, Richard Williams, William Storm, Mrs. William Covey, Chlo. Christ, Benjamin Covey, Mrs. W. P. Hill, W. P. Hill, Mrs. William Cousins, Miss Mildred Cass, Miss Elizabeth Smith, Mrs. Floyd May, Miss Lila Phillips, Wallace Harbeck.

C. D. Geer was in charge of the music. Carl W. Brown and Henry G. Aurelle of the lighting.

The service was opened by Rev. David A. Pitt, D. D., who announced that the collection taken would be to save the children of the Near East. The collection amounted to $142.15, which with the $150 from the Central Baptist church school totals $292.15, a splendid Christmas gift to those so greatly in need in that foreign land.

THIRD BAPTIST CHURCH
CHILDREN GIVE PROGRAMME

The Sunday school of the Third Baptist church gave a delightful programme Sunday evening at the church. There was a large attendance. The offering taken is to be added to the Near East Relief fund. The program was as follows:

ANNUAL SUNDAY SCHOOL
FESTIVAL AT CHRIST CHURCH

The annual Sunday school festival was held at Christ church Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock with the rector, Rev. Richard R. Graham, officiating. The church was decorated for the occasion with a large Christmas tree at the left of the chancel. At the right of the chancel was a representation of the Nativity, and it was before this that the gifts from the children of the Sunday school were placed, emulating the action of the Wise Men from the East at Epiphany.

Each child in the Sunday school was given a gift and a box of Christmas candles. The offering for the relief of the suffering children in the Near East and the gifts from the children of the Sunday school will be used in missionary work next year.

UNITED CHURCH SCHOOL HOLDS CHRISTMAS SERVICE

The Prophetic Child play was presented Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Sunday house by the church school of the United Congregational church. The play beautifully pictured the birth of Christ and the events that followed in the manger in the little town of Bethlehem.

The scene opened with Mary kneeling beside the Christ Child, and Joseph standing beside her. At the other end of the manger stood the three shepherds and two women of Bethlehem. Three angels appeared on a platform in back of the stage and when the shepherds grew frightened, saw the Christ Child and the angels. The angels then departed and after the shepherds and women had gazed upon the Christ Child, the Three Wise Men entered and walked to the manger, singing as they approached. The Three Kings of the Orient are. They then presented their gifts to the Christ Child and stepped back while the angels again appeared, above the manger was the bright guiding star, and adding to the effect as the principals entered a spotlight was used.

The committees in charge comprised Mrs. William H. Dewley, Mrs. Arthur L. Peals and W. W. Sample, entertainment; Miss Mary Lucas, Miss Elizabeth Huntington, decorations; Mrs. Edward G. Andrews, angels, and Herbert W. Cary, lighting.
